

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

TITLES

OF THE

MEMOIRS AND REVIEWS

CONTAINED IN THE

THIRD VOLUME OF THE THIRD HEXADE.

No. 1.

- I. CONSIDERATIONS on mental or intellectual property, by the Hon. Robt. R. Livingston, LL. D. p. 1
- II. Remarks on the laws for securing to inventors and discoverers, their respective rights, by Oliver Evans, Benjamin Colvin, Joseph Hawkins, and Robert Fulton. 4
- III. Abstract of the sums received into the Treasury, on account of Patents for inventions, since 1800, by Thomas T. Tucker, Treasurer of the U. S. 13
- IV. Description of some human bones, of extraordinary size, dug up near Girgenti in Sicily, by Captain James Allen, and remarks thereon by Joseph Backus, Esq. 14
- V. The Yellow Springs in Virginia described, naturally and chemically. By the Right Rev. James Madison, D. D. 17
- VI. Anatomical inquiry into the condition of the human body, after death by Spotted Fever. By Josephus B. Stuart, M. D. 23
- VII. The advantages of an intercourse between the western states and the Gulf of Mexico, by the bay of Mobile and the rivers Tombigby and Alabama, in preference to the Mississippi. By his excellency Willie Blount, governor of Tennessee. 27
- VIII. Two Latin Sapphic Odes, addressed to J. Anderson, M. D. and A. Green, SS. T. D. By James Ross, Esq. 34
- IX. Some particulars concerning Bûchedemer, a substance used for food by the Chinese, and of the method pursued by the New-Yorkers, in taking and pre-

- paring it for the Canton market ; with an attempt to ascertain the animal that produces it. By Samuel L. X. Mitchill* 37

The brain examined by dissection, after the fatal termination of Spotted Fever. By Drs. Joseph Bartlett and Job Wilson, (with a figure) 41

With Reviews of notices concerning Cincinnati, by Daniel Drake, p. 43—of a treatise upon Insurances on Lives and Life Annuities, by J. Meyer, p. 47—of a tour through the Western Country, by F. Cum- ing, p. 54—of a dissertation on the Spotted Fever, by Elisha North, p. 56—To which are subjoined twenty-nine articles of intelligence, on mad dogs, mu- nicipal precautions, various tested remedies for the disease consequent upon their bites, mineralogical subjects, medical dissertations, natural history, epi- gastric distempers, the Herculean straits, submarine volcanoes, university graduates in physic, flights of gossamer, chemical investigations, and other matters foreign and domestic, from p. 75, to p. 106.

No. II.

- I. An inquiry, what is the metallic composition called Tutenague, in commerce and the arts. By Mr. Joseph Curtis and others. 107
- II. A letter from the Secretary of State, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives in Congress, accom- panying an abstract of the discoveries and inventions made within the U. S. since May 1st, 1805, for which patents have been granted. 112
- III. Communication from the chairman of the commit- tee, on that part of the president's message of the 5th December, 1810, which relates to a seminary of learning at the seat of the general government, to the chancellor of the New-York University. 122
- IV. Information concerning the American Columbo- root, growing in Ohio and the other western states, By Dr. S. P. Hildreth, of Marietta (with a print of the plant.) 126
- V. Remarks on the proximate cause of inflammation, with an attempt to establish a rational plan of cure. By Alexander H. Stevens, A. M. of New-York. 128
- VI. Experiments and observations in defence of the doctrine of cutaneous absorption. By Josephus Brad- ner Stuart, of Albany. 137

CONTENTS.

VII. Observations on mania, particularly with respect to the treatment and cure, by Robert Ralston, M. D. of New-Orleans.	142
IX Account of a remarkable preservation of human bodies, in a cave abounding with sulphate of iron, near the Cany fork of Cumberland river, in Tennessee, by Pleasant M. Miller, Esq.	147
With Reviews of an essay on the causes of the variety of complexion and figure in the human species. By Samuel Stanhope Smith, D. D. p. 150—of observations on the climate in different parts of America, compared with the climate in corresponding parts of the other continent. By Hugh Williamson, M. & LL. D. p. 160—of the Young Shepherd's Guide. By Samuel Bard, M. D. p. 172—of a statistical Manual of New-York p. 182—and twenty articles of intelligence, on biography, books, physiology, the great leathery tortoise, the enormous head-fish, dry mortification, gold as an anti-syphilitic remedy, medical education, botanical criticism, and poisons, from 189 to 210.
No. III.
I. An explanation of certain phenomena, in the heating of water, by the Hon. Samuel Tenney, of Exeter, (N. H.)	211
II. Extraordinary recovery from a wound of the stomach, communicated by John Archer, M. D. of Maryland.	215
III. Observations on spontaneous combustions. By Adam Seybert M. D. M. H. R. of Philadelphia.	217
IV. Foul condition of the County Prison of New-York. By Peter C. Tappen, House-Physician of the N. Y. Hospital.	223
V. Observations and practical remarks on the venereal disease, &c. By Felix Pascalis, M. D. of New-York.	230
VI. Observations on the peruvian bark, addressed to Professor Rush. By Dr. Clark Sanford of Greenwich, (Conn.)	241
VII. An account of a schirrus and cancer. By Dr. Anson Smith, of Kingston, Upper Canada.	246
With Reviews, of an account of Expeditions to the sources of the Mississippi, and through the western parts of Louisiana, performed by order of the govern- ment of the U. S. during the years 1805, 1806, 1807. By Major Z. M. Pike, p. 256—of a political essay on the kingdom of New Spain, containing researches relative to the geography of Mexico, &c. by Alexr. de Humboldt, p. 264—of critical remarks on the Bakerian lecture of 1809. By Thomas D. Mitchill Esq. of Philadelphia, p. 287—and eighteen articles of intelligence, on curing wry ancles, on the existence of superfatation in a cow, on the phenomena of light during a solar eclipse, astronomical observations in various places, on the annular eclipse of the sun, Sept. 17th, 1811, on the enterprise of an individual in the Island of Tristan d' Acunha, on the title of the United States to eastern Louisiana, on external remedies in diseases, on fractures in new-born infants, on curing the venereal disease by alkalies, on the success of alkalies in the painter's colic, and several other matters, from p. 293, to 314.

No. IV.

- I. Reflections and experiments upon the vaccine virus. By Dr. I. Van Voorhis, Surgeon in the army of the U. S. 315
 - II. Description of the Pemphigus Infantilis. 320
 - III. Remarks on the means of restoring suspended animation. By Alexr. H. Stevens, M. D. 325
 - IV. Observations and remarks on the nature, progress, and operations of the venereal disease, (continued). By Dr. F. Pascalis. 329
 - V. Reasons for supposing that the Truffle is a native of the United States. In a letter from Dr. Mitchill, to Caspar W. Eddy, M. D. dated Washington, March 31st, 1812. 335
 - VI. A few remarks and cautions on venesection. 337
 - VII. Salutary effects and beneficial influence of marsh miasmata, in pulmonary diseases, &c. 339
 - VIII. An account of the mode of increasing the glare and intensity of light, practised by Captain W. Lewis, in the light house establishment. In a letter from Dr. S. L. Mitchill. 342
 - IX. Discoveries in relation to light. 347
- With Reviews of Humboldt's Travels, (continued.) p. 348—of American ornithology, vol. 4. by Alexr. Wilson, p. 360—of the Botanist, or part of a course of botanical lectures, by Benjamin Waterhouse, M. D. p. 370—of observations on magical practices, by Dr. Aaron C. Willey, p. 377—with eleven articles of domestic and foreign intelligence, and biographical sketches on the late Dr. E. Miller, encomiastic notice on the same, funeral oration do. from p. 383 to 409.*